Dressing the Ranch Home

Elevate Your Mid-Century Home's Décor with the Essential Element: Hardware That Celebrates Style.

(August 24, 2009) Make the most of your mid-century home with creative touches of style. The right accessories can take a mundane space and convert it to a space alive with modern style. Small in size but big on attitude - - the mid-century-inspired collections of knobs, pulls, bath accessories, and house numbers from Atlas can add a sophisticated finish making the most of what you've got. Whether you've just bought your first mid-century home, or this is just one of many in your passion, the right accessories can instantly upgrade the whole process.

Here's just a sampling of the Atlas Collections you can mix and match to create a modern décor spilling over with style:

DAP MEGA PULLS AND KNOBS

Mid-century modern never looked so good! Available in finishes of Black, Satin Brass, Brushed Nickel and Polished Chrome, the clean lines of the Dap Collection will brighten your home. For mega style, consider the Mega Pull. Measuring 10" long by .75" wide with a projection of 1.5", it retails for a mere $37. The Cone Knob makes a stunning statement in any finish. But if Polished Chrome or Black rendering these snippets of style just $4 each! Measuring 1" by 1" with a 1.25" projection, the Knobs normally sell for $8.
